++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Largely dry and sunny, but cold with brisk winds.

Today:
A cold, but mainly dry and bright day with long spells of autumn sunshine, however the odd shower is possible in the afternoon. Brisk winds throughout. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Tonight:
Broken cloud will produce a few showers overnight. These most likely in the west, with some eastern parts largely dry. Feeling cold with strong westerly winds, particularly over high ground. Minimum temperature 4 deg C (39 deg F).

Friday:
A breezy start, but winds steadily easing through the morning. Sunny spells and a few showers, but these should be mostly light, before dying away through the evening. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Saturday, largely dry and bright, but increasingly windy and cloudy, with overnight rain. Rain slowly clearing to sunny spells and blustery showers Sunday. Sunny spells and scattered showers continuing Monday.
